

Whale's Tales

A film by Yohtaro Abe

SYNOPSIS

Facing a terminal illness, Rain chooses cryogenic sleep in the hope of a cure. Each awakening carries her further into a future transformed by technology—and further from the life she knew.

FILM

Science-fiction short
Japan · 2026 · 12 min 10 sec

CREDITS

Written & directed by Yohtaro Abe
Produced by Binh Cong Nguyen
A Yo Ho Studio production

Yohtaro Abe

Yohtaro Abe is a Tokyo-based film director and creative director working across narrative film, emerging technology, and industrial cinema.

SCREENINGS, VIEWING INFORMATION & PARTNERSHIPS

Watch the 32-second excerpt and contact the studio at yoho.studio/whales-tales.
English-subtitled excerpt. Full-film language versions and screening materials on inquiry.

Selected stills

Rain emerges from cryogenic sleep.

An unfamiliar world.